Dear Mr. Pearson:

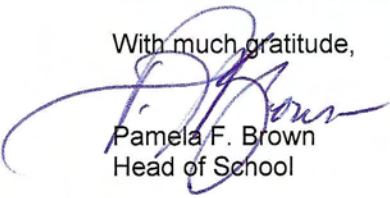

The African American History Committee at Frank C. Martin International K-8 Center would like to offer you our genuine thanks for assisting us in the a dynamic celebration of African American Men of Distinction. Your presence has assisted us in fostering a positive image of black men.

Frank C. Martin International K-8 Center, Florida's first K-8 Center to house both the International Baccalaureate Primary Years and Middle Years Programmes. The faculty and staff is continuously working to provide a quality-learning experience for all of its students which results in high academic standards, curriculum innovations and the consistent delivery of quality services. The school has been honored through the Florida School Recognition Program and received a grade of "A" for 11 years.

Please accept this commemorative photograph of our "2011 Men of Distinction" as a thank you for your contribution given to our students as we strive to provide an enriched education for our students. To view the NBC 6 news coverage, please go to the following website:
