As a long time consumer of insurance, employee benefits and retirement products for his family and business, Peter understands what it's like to need a competent, trustworthy professional. His mission is to deliver knowledgeable, honest, and expert advice to his business and personal clients.

Peter joined the Principal in 2001 and has over 18 years experience working with employee benefits. He was VP of a $30 million corporation and served as trustee of the ESOP retirement plan, as well as set up and ran the 401(k) plan. Peter was also involved in choosing and implementing all employee benefit programs.

Peter is a member and past president of the Visalia County Center Rotary Club. His passion is Rotary International's Youth Exchange Program. He is responsible for placing Central Valley high school students with foreign host families and overseeing the students who come to live here from 14 different countries.

Peter is a member of Million Dollar Round Table, and the Premier and Top Flight Clubs at the Principal. He lives in Visalia with his wife, Ruth, and their two children, Rebekah and Joshua.
