After graduating from Michigan Technological University with a degree in Forest Business Management, Ron joined the Peace Corps to share what he had learned. After serving two years in Ethiopia as a Forest Consultant he received his Masters in Soils Genesis from Michigan State University. Ron then joined the U. S. Forest Service and worked for seven years in Timber Management. Ron's experience in the Peace Corps and Timber Management laid the foundation for his unique talent set oriented toward the business market.

Ron joined the Principal Financial Group[®] in 1987. The Principal was a perfect fit for Ron's unique talents because it's a service oriented, global financial institution offering businesses, individual and institutional clients a wide range of financial products, services and solutions. He is able to assist you with Qualified Retirement Plans, Nonqualified Retirement Plans, Exit Strategies, Money Management, and Individual Financial Analysis.

During his early years Ron spent his time working with individuals and businesses on their investment and insurance programs. He also attained the designations of Chartered Financial Consultant and Life Underwriter Training Council Fellow. He is currently a Financial Advisor and Registered Representative with Princor Financial Services Corporation.

As a business owner himself, Ron has demonstrated a seasoned understanding of the needs of successful business owners and other professionals by helping them analyze and implement strategies to assist them in achieving their financial goals.
