After obtaining a Bachelor of Science from Cleveland State University in 1994 and a graduate degree from Case Western Reserve University (CWRU), Sharon became an administrator in the healthcare industry. Her education at CWRU's business school and training as a leader in healthcare have combined to give Sharon a unique talent set oriented towards financial services in the business market.

Together with the solutions for businesses offered by the Principal Financial Group®, Sharon is able to present innovative ideas to assist you with Qualified Retirement Plans, Nonqualified Retirement Plans, Exit Strategies, Money Management, and Individual Financial Planning. Sharon demonstrates a seasoned understanding in meeting the needs of successful business owners and other professionals when helping analyze and implement effective and efficient plans that assist in achieving financial success.

Putting together a strategy to help meet your financial objectives and realize your dreams does not have to be a chore. Sharon can help you discover how to take control of your financial future and develop personal and business strategies to help you achieve your goals—whatever they may be.

Sharon is a member of the Bakersfield Chamber of Commerce. She joined the Principal because of its position as a leading global financial institution offering businesses, individuals, and institutional clients a wide range of financial products, services, and solutions.
