As a financial professional with Principal Life Insurance Company, Chad Vitzthum works with businesses and individuals to help build plans and strategies to assure financial success.

Vitzthum's 15 years in the financial services industry includes over 10 years as Vice President of Commercial Banking for local community banks. His responsibilities with this position allowed him to work hand-in-hand with individuals and small-to-medium business owners to meet their financial goals. This first-hand experience puts him in tune to the challenges individuals and business owners face on a day-to-day basis.

Together, with his experience and the team available to him through the Principal Financial Group®, he is equipped to help meet the needs of his clients.

Vitzthum's professional affiliations include: I-94 West Chamber of Commerce - Past President; St. Michael-Albertville Rotary Club; Paul Harris Fellow Award recipient.

Vitzthum is a recipient of the 2007 Principal Pacesetter award; he is also the 2008 leading Junior Advisor for the Minnesota Business Center.

Vitzthum holds a degree in finance from Iowa State University. He and his wife reside in St. Michael, Minnesota with their two children.
