As a Princor Registered Representative with Princor Financial Services Corporation, Corey Smith works with businesses and individuals to help build plans and strategies to assure financial success.

Smith has 20 years of sales experience, working hand-in-hand with business owners to meet their personal goals. This first-hand experience puts him in tune to the challenges individuals and business owners face on a day-to-day basis, often times using life insurance as a vehicle to protect family and assets.

Together with his experience and the team available to him through Princor®, he is equipped to help meet the needs of his clients.

Smith holds a degree in education from the University of Minnesota.

He resides in Golden Valley, Minnesota.
