Erika Bjorklund began her career as a third generation advisor with the Principal Financial Group® in 2007. Her experience alongside her father, senior agent Dick Bjorklund, has given her great insight and knowledge in helping individuals, families, and businesses reach their financial goals.

Erika is a recipient of the 2010 Principal Pacesetter Award, Century Club Award, and was recognized as the Minnesota Business Center New Associate of the Year. She qualified for the company's Premier Club and Million Dollar Round Table (MDRT) in her first full year in the business.

A graduate of the University of Minnesota, Erika was a member of the women's swimming & diving team. In the community, she is involved with the Gopher M Club and is a host committee member of Leaders of Today and Tomorrow. She also coaches swimming for the New Hope Crystal Plymouth Swim Club.

Erika currently resides in St. Louis Park, MN.
