As a Princor Registered Representative with many years in the financial services industry, Steve specializes in creating personalized financial plans for individuals and business owners. Steve advocates a comprehensive approach to financial strategy that integrates cash flow, taxes, insurance, investments, and estate planning within the framework of a carefully designed financial plan.

Through an extensive discussion process with his clients, Steve gains a better understanding of what is important to them, their concerns and values. This enables Steve to help his clients make sound financial decisions for their future, implement a plan of action and then follow up with timely and effective ongoing client service.

Steve believes strongly in giving back to the community. He is active in the Albertville Lions and has been since 2000, holding local and district leadership positions. Steve was a charter member of the STMA Rotary Club, Cub Scout Den Leader, and continues to donate his time as a coach for youth sports.

Steve is a graduate from St. Cloud State University with a degree in accounting.

He resides in St. Michael with his wife and two children.
