Tom Payn has been in the financial services industry since 1998 with a strong emphasis on helping business owners implement new plans and strategies to achieve financial success. Tom's experience working in the business sector, their management teams and their outside advisors has helped him better understand the challenges of small business owners. Together with the Principal Financial Group®, Tom has the resources available to help businesses and individuals plan for retirement, premature death or unexpected disability.

Tom received his MBA and BA in finance from University of Puget Sound in Washington. Tom is active in the Eugene and Florence Chambers of Commerce.

Tom is an active member of his community. In his personal time Tom enjoys spending time with his wife, children and grandchildren. Tom participates in the Central Coast Wind Ensemble, playing the trumpet. Tom and his wife reside in Florence, Oregon.
