After a successful career as a wide receiver in the National Football League (NFL) for 11 years, James Edward McKnight has joined the Principal Financial Group® as a Financial Services Representative. In the NFL, he played for the Seattle Seahawks (1994-1998), the Dallas Cowboys (2000), Miami Dolphins (2001-2003), and the New York Giants (2004).

James graduated from Liberty University in Lynchburg, VA in 1999 with a degree in Criminal Justice. A native of Apopka, he now resides with his family in South Florida.

An avid motivational speaker, James is very involved in the community and church. He coached the Cypress Bay High School wide receivers and was the Head Coach for the boys and girls track team from 2008-2010. For two years he has served as the Chairman/President of the Education Empowerment Foundation Inc, located in Miami.

James' message is one of relentless faith in your beliefs and goals. He teaches that no obstacle can bar your way; you can run around it, jump over it, if you have to you must "run through it" into your destiny.
