Michael Del Fierro brought his background in the medical and health insurance industry to Principal Financial Group® in 2011. His motivation was to expand his practice to include qualified retirement planning, small business strategies and accumulation techniques for corporate and entrepreneurial individuals.

Continuing his education at Devry University, Michael is progressing toward a degree in management.

Born in South Florida he has lived in the area for over 30 years. A noted tennis player, Michael is a member of the United States Professional Tennis Association and donates much of his time to local charities as well.
