Miguel focuses on a well-rounded business that includes helping clients plan for future needs such as retirement, college and their estate using financial vehicles including mutual funds, disability insurance, individual and group insurance and variable contracts. The scope of clients that Miguel serves ranges from physicians to attorneys and owners of small to mid-size businesses.

Miguel is a Registered Representative of Princor Financial Services Corporation and a Financial Representative of Principal Life Insurance Company.

Born in New York and raised in Caracas, Venezuela, Miguel is bilingual in English and Spanish. A graduate of the University of Florida, Miguel earned his degree in Sociology and a minor in Business Administration.

Miguel is involved with BNI (Business Networking International), a business and professional networking organization whose primary purpose is to exchange qualified business referrals.

Miguel and his wife Yoshiko live with their two daughters in Pembroke Pines, FL. He enjoys playing tennis, travel and spending time with his family and friends.
