Prior to joining The Principal®, Cory had worked ten years in the medical industry where he worked his way up from data entry to administrator. He established many professional relationships during this time which he brings with him in his new role as a financial services representative.

Cory completed most of his college education taking evening classes at UTA, where he received a BBA in Management. He will continue his education in the MBA program at UTA.

Fort Worth has been Cory's home and most of his family lives in the DFW area. When he's not working or studying, Cory enjoys spending his time fishing, camping or boating. He also enjoys snow skiing in Colorado and New Mexico whenever he can.
