Wes Sorensen is a native Texan living north of the DFW Metroplex in Denton, TX with his wife, Jennifer and their three sons. He joined the Principal Financial Group® in July of 2007 where he came over from Chase after three years of service as a personal banker, branch manager and Business Banker. He has six years financial services experience, completed his licensing in 2004 and started with Edward Jones where he spent his first year.

In addition to helping businesses and other organizations to find the most appropriate, affordable and best value retirement plan solution and other group benefits programs, Wes specializes in working with the participants of the retirement plan to best utilize the available investment options. He educates them on their other employer provided benefits and how it all integrates into a personal financial strategy. He is a Series 7 and Series 63 registered securities representative and is also Life, Health and Disability licensed. Wes enjoys spending time with his family and friends. His hobbies include taking his boys fishing, teaching them Tee-ball, golf, basketball and football. He enjoys playing golf and is a rabid sports enthusiast.
