Craig joined the Principal Financial Group® in April of 2011 as a Financial Representative and Princor Registered Representative. He works with individuals and small businesses to help them set and achieve their financial goals. Some of the services he provides are:

- Retirement Planning
- Individual Life and Disability Insurance
- Investments – Mutual Funds, Annuities, etc
- Estate Planning
- Education Savings
- 401(k) and other retirement Plans
- Group Disability, Life, and Health Insurance

Prior to joining the Principal Financial Group, Craig worked for Walgreens as a store manager. During this time he met many great people and developed his personal and management skills. After 24 years he felt he was in a great position to pursue a career change and enter the financial services industry. Craig has always had a passion for financial services and helping people. This passion along with being able to understand people's needs will assist Craig in helping his clients in reaching their goals.

Craig grew up in the Milwaukee area and now resides in West Bend with his loving wife Denise. Together, they have three sons; Zack, Dustin, and Coty. In his free time Craig enjoys watching sports, playing golf, and spending time with his family.
